GRAYS HARBOR COLLEGE

Thank you for your interest in Grays Harbor College. We are very pleased that you wish to explore the opportunities our community and college have to offer. Grays Harbor College was established in 1930 as a public, community college. Grays Harbor College strives to provide education of the highest quality. Recognizing the worth of every individual, we offer choices and new beginnings to those who seek our services. Our mission is to educate productive, ethical people who are committed to preserving and enhancing the world's cultural and natural heritage.

We admit international students into our college credit program only. If you have a TOEFL score of more than 500 or an APIEL score of 3, 4, 5, you meet the English requirements for the credit program. If your TOEFL score is below 500 and/or your APIEL score is below a 3, you need to increase your English skills before you will be able to attend Grays Harbor College.

We require you to provide the following documents:

1. Send a completed Grays Harbor College Admission Application and Supplemental Information Form.
2. Provide translated copies of all scholastic records (i.e. secondary school, previous college, language schools, etc.)
3. Submit a financial responsibility statement (with supporting documents). Estimated expenses for a school year (nine months) at our college are approximately $18,468.00.
4. Furnish proof of English proficiency (a copy of your TOEFL or APIEL score).

As an international student, you will be required to show proof of insurance or you may enroll for Student Accident and Sickness Insurance for each quarter you are in attendance at Grays Harbor College.

We do not have dormitories. The Aberdeen community has listed nearby apartment complexes and houses available for rent. The Grays Harbor Transit has an extensive route system designed to help with any transportation needs you may have at a very affordable price.

For further information you can write us at the Admissions Office at the address below, send us email at admissions@ghc.edu or visit our website at <http://www.ghc.edu>. I am very excited that you are interested in Grays Harbor College.

Sincerely,

Nancy R. DeVerse
Associate Dean for Student Services
