COURSE POLICIES:

- A. Absolutely no cell phones usage during class. If your cell phone rings, it will cost you one (1) Chapter Examination score.
- B. Chapter(s) examination(s) must be taken per course schedule.
- C. Workbook exercise(s) as assigned must be turned in on scheduled date.

COURSE POLICIES:

- D. Attendance is an integral element of your final grade evaluation. Roll will be taken at each class meeting session. Three (3) pre-arranged excused absence(s) during the quarter will not affect your final grade; however, more than three (3) pre-arranged and/or not pre-arranged absence(s) will not be excused.
- E. Your success in BA 140 is directly related to your commitment to the course. Plan on spending approximately one (1) hour for homework for each hour spent in class. You will have a much better understanding of the application(s) if you attend class and complete all the assigned sessions.
- F. Disciplinary action may be taken for all forms of student academic dishonesty, including cheating, falsification, plagiarism, or facilitating, aiding and abetting academic dishonesty. Cases of inappropriate behavior will be reported to the Vice President of Instruction.
- G. The college classroom must be a working and learning environment in which adults treat each other with respect. Students who demonstrate a disregard for working, learning, and adult behavior or respect for others' ideas will be asked to leave the classroom.
- H. Students who have documented disabilities that require accommodations in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act should contact the Disability Support Services coordinator as well as the instructor of the course in order to ensure that together we create an optimal environment for educational achievement. Special circumstances may be considered.
