

HIRING

Grays Harbor Veterinary Services is searching for an attentive, kennel assistant to oversee the well-being of the animals in our care. The kennel assistant's responsibilities include cleaning cages, bathing, administering medication, providing animals with quality care, and maintaining cleanliness of the clinic.

To ensure success as a kennel assistant, you should be able to anticipate and tend to the needs of animals. Ultimately, a top-notch kennel attendant will be able to tailor their care according to animals' physical, emotional, and behavioral difficulties.

To become a Kennel Assistant, you'll need:

- To care about the health of dogs and cats
- Must be willing to work a flexible schedule, holidays, and weekends.
- Observational skills to notice when a dog is unwell or unhappy.
- Patience, and the ability to handle dogs and cats gently.
- Ability to work calmly and control emotions while working with scared or stressed animals.
- Physical fitness to exercise dogs and do practical work such as cleaning
- Must be able to lift 40 lbs
- Willingness to do some work outside in all types of weather.
- Communication skills to talk to Veterinarians, co-workers, and owners.
- Some clerical skills.
- Must have a valid driver's license.
