The Associated Women Students again upheld their reputation of sponsoring the largest social event of the year. This time it was the Snowball formal at the Elks temple, in January.

Other activities of the organization included the card party given in the spring quarter to raise money to furnish the women's rooms, and the sponsoring of the annual campus day, with the spotlight on games and sports rather than on clean-up this year. The social activities ended with the formal tea given in honor of senior girls from surrounding high schools.

The student body as a whole had plenty to do this year in the great change of buildings, in house-warmings, and in supporting all the school dances. The officers, as board of control, aided in planning the new student loan fund which goes into effect in the fall of 1934.

Alpha Delta Rho, the sorority, completed a particularly successful year. Two meetings were held each month, a dinner-dance during spring vacation at Pacific Beach Hotel was an event of the year, and potluck dinners, a May Day dance for college students and friends, and an assembly were other affairs sponsored by the club.

Ruth Sawyer, Violet Waltari, Barbara Shainholts, Phyllis Rockwell, Pat Forgey, Pat McGillicuddy are freshmen members; Annleal Adams, Adelene Nibarger, Lois Allen are pledges; Henrietta Thomas, Viola Carlson, Virginia Miller, Dorothy Marlatt, Viano Wuori, Ina Kari, Peggy Smith, Marie Forgey, and Maurine Hollinshead are sophomore members.

The Midshipmen Club, sophomore men's honorary, has had an active and successful year under the leadership of Elmer Holmberg, and has again materially furthered its purpose to promote high ideals in the school and maintain school traditions, morale, and good fellowship among the men students.

The club's calendar of social functions included an informal dinner-dance at the Pacific Beach Hotel, a semi-formal dance in December at the Emerson Hotel, and a spring semi-formal in the college auditorium. In addition the organization sponsored several assemblies and an open house for all new men students.

Members took it upon themselves to patrol the former college grounds during Halloween; the latest undertaking has been to lay a floor and to furnish the new men's room.

Athenaeum Club

President ..... Beatrice Kari
 Vice President ..... Ina Kangas
 Sec.-Treasurer ..... Helia Karvonen

Stage and screen actors were subjects of study of the Athenaeum club this year. During the year a formal reception for all freshmen girls, a formal progressive dinner, a reception for Judge Beals, an annual spring formal, March 9, at the Morck Hotel, a card party, and the annual dinner-dance at the Pacific Beach Hotel, May 26, were events sponsored by the organization. Speakers were Judge Beals, Miss Bessie Dawes, Mr. Harold Fearing, and the Reverend Mr. T. T. Ove.

Sophomore members: Annaleal Adams, Helia Karvonen, Beatrice Kari, Ina Kari, Ina Kangas, Peggy Smith, Dorothy Marlatt, Viano Wuori, Pauline Walsh, Ruth Robinson, Marie Forgey, and Jean Johnson.

ASSOCIATED MEN STUDENTS

President ..... Jack Kavaney
 Vice President ..... Charles Caughlan
 Secretary-Treasurer ..... John Oldfield

Men had an outstanding year, for, besides being active in several minor events, they staged a clever musical comedy, the gate receipts for which surpassed any previous production given by the school. The Days of '49, an annual event sponsored by the men was better than ever this year.

Debate

Affirmative team ..... John Oldfield, Jack Kavaney
 Negative team ..... Jack Stevenson, Judson Klingberg,
 ..... Millie Gerdis

The question for debate this year was "Resolved: That the powers of the President should be substantially increased as a settled policy. Following the custom of the past two years the Grays Harbor teams used the cross-question, or Oregon system of debate which permits the speakers of each team to question their opponents on the latters' case. An interesting commentary on the effect of capitalism on the White House was made by a speaker in one debate who said, "Of course the President is a rich man! He gets $75,000 a year salary!"

Debates were held with the Mt. Vernon Junior College, Pacific Lutheran College, and the freshmen teams of the University of Washington and the College of Puget Sound. Two debates were held with each school, one in Aberdeen and one at the city in which the opponent's schools are located.

"Don't Trust Your Grandmother"

This year the play was a fast-moving comedy, "Don't Trust Your Grandmother," which concerned itself with the problems that confronted the Gates family in adjusting itself to conditions arising from the difficulties of making a living during the depression. The author, George Milton Savage, of Seattle, was present at both performances.

In the cast were Helen Pantages as Grandma; Howard Oakland, Mr. Harley; Virginia Miller, Margery; Tony Savina, Gerald Barker; Gordon Edlund, Jack Caston; Marian Wandell, Millicent; Dante Cappa, Theodore; Pat McGillicuddy, Jane Sowerby; Adelene Nibarger, Mrs. Johnson; Doris Large, Mrs. Wilston; Jack Stevenson, Mr. Wilston; Helia Karvonen, Letitia Wilston; Geraldine Adkins, Mrs. Gates; Judson Klingberg, Mr. Gates; Florence Campbell, Miss Hernander; Howard Dains and Martin McDowell, officers. Faculty advisor was Martha Ann Goertz; student director, Ed Nelson; business manager, Cliff Parr.

Sports

VARSIY BASKETBALL

Entering the 1933-34 state junior college conference race with a comparatively new team, the Blue and Grey of the Grays Harbor Junior College slid through a tough schedule with four wins and six losses—to finish in third place.

About twenty candidates answered Coach Flora's first call in December and after considerable drill and polishing, the 1934 team was picked. The squad included "Sandy" Peterson, Jack "Goose" Jeffries, Roy "Ed" Berge, Everett "Hal" Austin, Adolph "Bull" Bednarick, Severn "Sev" Koski, Jimmy McGee, Jack Kavaney, and Bob Hancock and Bill Reasoner, managers. Others turning out and playing in the preliminary games were "Mickey" McDowell, "Dugan" LaBreck, Howard Daines, Bob Hancock, Bill Reasoner, Lauri Rimpila, Tighe Miller, and Jim Quigg.

Opening the season January 1, against Pacific Lutheran college of Tacoma, the Jaysee hoop tossers lost a bitterly fought contest on the Miller court by a score of 31 to 29. The game went into two overtime periods before the game was ended. Peterson, local forward was the star, scoring 17 points.

Resuming conference play the following Tuesday the Blue and Grey again tangled with P. L. C. Minus the services of "Hal" Austin, the Jaysees were defeated again, this time 49-31. Peterson again led scorers with 13 points.

On January 13, the Jaysees met the powerful quintet of Seattle College in another conference game. This was one of the outstanding games of the year, as the locals had to come from behind to win 28-25. Peterson and Jeffries were outstanding in the rally.

On January 17, the Jaysees suffered their third defeat in conference play on the Miller court when their last quarter rally was not sufficient to head off the lead Yakima Junior College had piled up. The final score was 32-27. Berge led the scorers with 10 markers to his credit.

Hitting their winning stride finally, the Blue and Grey quintet defeated the league-leading Centralia "Tigers" 22 to 18 at Centralia. This was another game where the locals had to come from behind to win as Centralia was leading 14 to 11 at the half. Kavaney, Jeffries, and Peterson led in the scoring.

Continuing their victory march G. H. J. C., defeated Mt. Vernon with ease on the Miller court, 24-16. With Jeffries and Berge hitting the hoop consistently, the outcome was never in doubt.

On January 27, the J. C., squad journeyed to Yakima to play a return engagement with the Yakima J. C. The players rode all day and suffered considerably when game time rolled around; hence Yakima won with ease, 46-24.

Meeting the Seattle college in a return engagement on the Miller court in February the Jaysee quintet gave the Maroon warriors a decided drubbing. Score at half was 18-5, and with the reserves playing most of the last half the final score was 25-14. Berge and Jeffries led the scorers.

Meeting the Mt. Vernon J. C., at Mt. Vernon next, the team lost another bitterly fought contest. Two overtime periods were necessary before Mt. Vernon won by the small lead of 43-41. The Jaysees had to play one overtime period with only four men on the floor.

Playing their last college conference game the Blue and Grey lost another overtime game; this time to Centralia by a score of 24-22. The Jaysees also played three non-conference games, winning from Aberdeen high school 18-15; from the Armory Athletic club by a score of 31-6; and from Saginew Lumber company, a team consisting mainly of former Aberdeen Hi stars, 33-27. Leading scorers of the year were Jeffries, 90; Peterson, 87; Berge, 73; and Austin, 20.

Tennis

Veterans on the 1934 Jaysee tennis team numbered only three. With three other artists gripping their rackets the squad started another year of hard playing.

Winning their first meet at the Roosevelt courts in Aberdeen, the Jaysees defeated Pacific Lutheran college of Tacoma, four matches to two. Improving rapidly and out to win the state tennis title, the Jaysee racketeers next vanquished Centralia Junior College on the St. Martin's College courts, winning five matches to one. Nelson and Weatherwax were both impressive in their victories over Centralia No. 1 and 2 men. Members of the squad were Ed Nelson, Tom Weatherwax, John Rockwell, Judson Klingberg, Stanley Smith.

Golf

Down the fairway and on to the green go the junior college golfers as they swing the pellet around. The golf team this year was green and though supported by two or three outstanding golfers, the squad was no world beater.

The first meet of the year was held on the Grays Harbor Country Club course with Pacific Lutheran College of Tacoma. The score was rather one-sided, but some exceptional marks were turned in by both the invading team and the local golfers. The score was 16 to 2, with Bob Hancock ringing up the points for the Jaysees. Members of the team were Bob Hancock, Wallace Gittings, William Fox, and Harold Ove.

COLLEGE CONVERSATION

Al Hart: Give me an example of Junior Collegeism.

Tom Weatherwax: Feeding hay to the ponies used in Economics tests.

—————

Marie Forgey: Did you have a good time at the picnic?

Bob Lane: When was it?

Bill Reasoner: (Holding his hands over her eyes) If you don't guess who it is, I'm going to kiss you.

Irene Carlson: Santa Claus, Jack Frost, Davey Jones.

—————

Professor Jolly: I birch you don't know what kind of tree that is.

Flo Campbell: It's too fir away for me to tell; but it looks like Roy Berge.

Jud Klingberg: Let's go fishing.

Mr. Hillier: All right, you get debate and I'll bring Savina.

Mickey McDowell: Would you care to join us in a missionary movement?

Wallace Gittings: I'm crazy to try it. Is it anything like the Carioca?

Dorothy Marlatt: Are you going to work this summer?

Jane Hill: Why should I? I have plenty of Jack.

Viola Carlson: (The morning after the picnic) How did you find yourself this morning?

H. Thomas: Oh, I just threw back the covers, and there I was.

Ed Nelson: Between you and me, what do you think of Bob's girl?

Roy Berge: Between you and me, not so much; but alone — — oh boy!

Pat McGillicuddy: Are you sunburned? Your face is red.

Bill Reasoner: No, I'm just blushing to think how green I was last quarter.

—————

A. Nibarger: This place is the most gossipy town I ever was in.

V. Miller: What have you been doing now?

Coed: Miss Goertz said that kisses are love's language.

Bright Boy: Let's talk.
