Subject: ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Page 1 of 1

Operational Policy Number: 205

Date adopted: 8/1/75 Revised: 3/21/06

It is the policy of the Board of Trustees to protect the academic freedom of both the instructor and the student. Therefore, in the best interest of the individual, the community, and the larger society, it is the intent of the trustees to allow teachers and students alike the freedom to exchange and develop ideas.

It shall be the duty of the president to see that the necessary guidelines are established to protect academic freedom and the freedom of speech of the individual.
