

GRAYS HARBOR COLLEGE
Administrative Procedure

Subject: STUDENT ACTIVITIES, BONA FIDE, RECOGNITION

Page 1 of 1

Administrative Procedure Number: 409.02

Date adopted: 11/18/80 Revised: 1/17/95, 3/01

Student activities will be recognized as bona fide activities by any one of the following described processes or actions:

1. Whenever ten or more students group themselves for some identified purpose(s), prepare a constitution and/or by-laws, obtain approval from the vice president for student services, and secure recognition from the student council, that group will have satisfied the requirements for recognition as a bona fide student activity.
2. A student action, effort, event, purpose, group, or gathering will have been recognized as a bona fide student activity to the extent that the expenditure of funds in its support has been approved by an administrative officer of the college.
3. A student action, effort, event, purpose, group, or gathering will have been recognized as a bona fide student activity if, and to the extent, that it has been expressly and specifically approved, in advance, by an administrative officer of the college.