The Board of Trustees of Grays Harbor College has delegated authority to the President to prepare the annual operating budget detailing revenues and expenditures. The budget is prepared to coincide with the fiscal year of the College, July 1 to June 30. The Board of Trustees has ultimate responsibility for approving the annual operating budget.

The President or designee will prepare the operating budget using the principles and processes below.

I. Principles provide a framework and are the ideals for budget prioritization and resource allocation.

1. The overarching principle is to align the operating budget to the College’s strategic priorities.
   a. Enrich student learning
   b. Promote student, faculty, and staff success
   c. Foster a diverse, equitable, and inclusive learning environment
   d. Ensure effective, efficient, and sustainable use of college resources
   e. Strengthen community connections and partnerships

Other principles or ideals for the operating budget are:

2. The College will use planning to prioritize what is important to achieve its mission
3. Budget allocation will be prioritized as quantitative representation of what the college identifies as important to achieve its mission
4. Budget units of the college will establish goals or unit plans to improve operations while executing the strategic priorities. Those unit goals or unit plans will be the drivers for resource allocation in order to align annual operations objectives and actions with the college’s strategic priorities.
5. Resource allocation decisions will maintain fiscal sustainability
   a. Sustained student enrollment, progression and completion
   b. Optimal position levels with right mix of administrators, faculty and staff
   c. Physical space preservation, maintenance and renewal considering the campus master plan
   d. Cutting edge technology and continuous innovation
   e. Balanced budget with cash flow reserves complying with Board of Trustee requirements
   f. Preservation of all College and programmatic accreditation
6. The College will take a long-term perspective
7. Operating budget will be developed, prepared, approved and implemented in a manner that will involve necessary and appropriate consultation with broad constituencies.

II. Processes are actions or steps to be taken to develop, prepare and approve the operating budget.

The budgeting process below is a yearly timeline for the development, preparation, approval and implementation of the operating budget.
