ADVISORS' REPORT

Chance and Ralph reported that they had their Advisors' meeting with Deanna and they have a more clear picture of how to split up the responsibilities.

OLD BUSINESS

Life boat debate will be on May 19th at 1:30 p.m. and some of the faculty from different departments have stated they are interested in participating. Ralph clarified that the Net Impact project we had selected is Fiscal Fitness instead of Physical Fitness, but the group still shows interest in that project. Ralph informed us that a member has to have like an orientation webinar to start the project so Jassen will be holding a committee chair for net impact. To assist in that committee will be Steven and Brandi. A spring Meet and Greet will be on May 11 from 10:00 a.m. to Noon in the Student Conference Room. Mayhem will be on May 18th from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and we will be manning the cotton candy machine. Bishop Center concessions will be on June 11th at 6:30 p.m. and Steven, Lindsey, and Ralph have expressed interest. Bylaw changes will take place after new officers are elected so current officers and new officers can collaborate on changes.
