Minutes from May 8 meeting were not present.

OFFICERS' REPORT

Treasurer reports that the medals for the induction ceremony were ordered. There were 7 medals ordered for $154.40. President reported that Aaron Tuttle emailed her as well as a few others saying Lifeboat debate is coming up quick and that he feels with the lack of planning he feels that the event would not be successful.

ADVISORS' REPORT

Ralph reported that canvas has been setup. The active members are currently in canvas but it will take some time to get a list of all members to put into canvas. He expects Canvas to be fully functional for PTK come Fall.

OLD BUSINESS

Nominations for new officers were held. Two nominations for president, two for vice-president, one for secretary, one for treasurer, one for Public Relations and one for Officer at Large. Due to poor planning of lifeboat debate and Net Impact, both events have been canceled. The spring meet and greet was successful. More than 15 applications were taken and a few people were even walked over to the cashier's office to turn in applications. The coordinating of pizza was a little misunderstood so Ralph asked how that can be changed in the future. It was decided that a checklist for event might be a good idea to have. The involvement fair was set on a day that was horrible for recruitment. It clashed with the student success conference and advising day. Overall, we did find a way to make our time successful. The word did get out about future events. Mayhem is on May 18 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and the time slots have been filled. Bishop Center Concessions will be on June 11 at 7:00 p.m. and Steven, Brandi, Lindsey, Jassen and Ralph will be there. Induction Ceremony will be on June 1st at 7:00 p.m. and will be business formal. It has been decided that Dr. Minkler should be our guest speaker. Lindsey will be getting in contact with her. The Honorary member and awards given were also decided. Brandi took on the role of finding a catering company to cater the event which will be decided which route to take next meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

No New Business presented at this meeting.

ADJOURNMENT
