

Diversity Equity and Inclusion Training with CHARLES TONDERAI MUDEDE

FEATURING:

CHARLES TONDERAI MUDEDE

Charles Tonderai Mudede is a Zimbabwean-born cultural critic, urbanist, filmmaker, college lecturer, and writer.

He is the Senior Staff writer of the Stranger, a lecturer at Cornish College, and has collaborated with the director Robinson Devor on three films, two of which (Police Beat and Zoo) premiered at the Sundance Film Festival. Zoo also screened at Cannes Film Festival.

Mudede, whose essays regularly appear in e-flux, C-theory, and Tank Magazine, is also the director of Thin Skin (2021).

LECTURE
SPONSORED BY

PRESENTED BY:

WHEN:

Thursday, June 2nd at 1:00 pm.

WHO'S INVITED:

Grays Harbor College Students, Faculty, Staff, and Community Members

ABOUT THE DIVERSITY LECTURE SERIES

The Diversity Lecture Series brings various speakers and events to Grays Harbor College focusing on a number of topics related to diversity, social justice, and identity.

Join Grays Harbor College on ZOOM, Thursday, June 2nd at 1:00 pm for the Spring 2022 Diversity Equity and Inclusion Training! Learn from popular culture critic, filmmaker, and writer, Charles Mudede, about discourse and how speech relates to diversity, equity and inclusion. Explore what it means to find your voice and to have courageous conversations!

This Spring 2022 Diversity ZOOM Training is funded through a grant from TwinStar Credit Union. Members of the community are welcome and admission is free.

HOW TO REGISTER:

ghc.edu/mudede (Please visit this link to register. Space is limited.)

